

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT
SOUTHERN DISTRICT OF NEW YORK

----- X
TOM OGNIBENE, et al.,

Plaintiffs,

DECLARATION OF ARNIE WOLSKY

- against -

FREDERICK A. O. SCHWARTZ, JR., et al.,

08 CV 01335 (LTS) (TDK)

Defendants.

----- X

ARNIE WOLSKY, an attorney duly admitted to practice law declares under penalty of perjury and pursuant to 28 U.S.C. § 1746 that the following is true and correct:

1. I am the Deputy Counsel to the City Clerk and Director of the Lobbying Bureau in the New York City Clerk's office ("Lobbying Bureau").

2. I make this declaration based upon my personal knowledge, information contained in the books and records maintained by the Lobbying Bureau, and information contained in eLobbyist, the electronic filing system designed and maintained by the Department of Information Telecommunications and Technology ("DOITT").

3. In this declaration, I will set forth an overview of New York City's Lobbying Law. I will then explain how lobbyists and their clients submit information to the City Clerk, and how that information is maintained and made available to the public. Finally, I will note examples of the range of entities that have registered as lobbyists.

I. The Lobbying Bureau and New York City's Lobbying Law

4. Local Laws 15 of 2006 amended the New York City's Lobbying Law to improve the enforcement of regulations governing the lobbying of city officials and increase the transparency of lobbying activities. These changes transformed the compliance operations of the Lobbying Bureau in the Office of the City Clerk, which now holds lobbyists and clients accountable for meeting deadlines and submitting complete and accurate information. See New York City Admin. Code § 3-211.

A. Lobbying Bureau

5. The Lobbying Bureau has the authority to administer and enforce all provisions of the Lobbying Law, subpoena witnesses and records, issue advisory opinions to those under its jurisdiction, conduct any investigation and audits necessary to carry out the provisions of the Lobbying Law and promulgate such rules as are necessary for the proper administration of the Lobbying Law. Ad. Code § 3-212.

B. "Lobbying" Definitions

6. New York City's Lobbying Law is set forth in the Administrative Code of the City of New York, Title 3, Chapter 2, Subchapter 2. See Ad. Code § 3-211 et seq.

7. The Administrative Code defines "lobbyist" as "every person or organization retained, employed or designated by any client to engage in lobbying."¹ Ad. Code § 3-211(a).

8. "Lobbying," or "lobbying activities," is defined to mean "any attempt to influence:

¹ This definition explicitly excludes "any officer or employee of the city of New York, the State of New York, any political subdivision of the State, or any public corporation, agency or commission, or the United States" acting in his or her official capacity.

- i. the passage or defeat of any local law or resolution by the city council,
- ii. the approval or disapproval of any local law or resolution by the mayor,
- iii. any determination made by an elected city official or an officer or employee of the city with respect to the procurement of goods, services or construction, including the preparation of contract specifications, or the solicitation, award or administration of a contract, or with respect the solicitation, award or administration of a grant, loan, or agreement involving the disbursement of public monies,
- iv. any determination made by the mayor, the city council, the city planning commission, a borough president, a borough board or a community board with respect to zoning or the use, development or improvement of real property subject to city regulation,
- v. any determination made by an elected city official or an officer or employee of the city with respect to the terms of the acquisition or disposition by the city of any interest in real property, with respect to a license or permit for the use of real property of or by the city, or with respect to a franchise, concession or revocable consent,
- vi. the adoption, amendment or rejection by an agency of any rule having the force and effect of law,
- vii. the outcome of any rate making proceeding before an agency, or viii. any determination of a board or commission.”²

Ad. Code § 3-211(c)(1).

9. There are certain persons and organizations that are excluded from the definition of “lobbying,” based on the types of activities in which they engage, such as newspapers, witnesses, persons who appear before an agency in an adjudicatory proceeding, or persons who prepare or submit a response to a request for information or comments by the city council, the mayor or another elected city official or an agency. Ad. Code § 3-211(c)(3).

10. The lobbying laws apply to all lobbyists in the same manner. The term “lobbyist” as defined above includes diverse entities such as lobbying firms, law firms who lobby on behalf of their clients, unions, not-for-profit entities, neighborhood groups and unincorporated associations.

C. Registration Statement

11. The New York City Clerk’s office, through its Lobbying Bureau, enforces the City’s lobbying laws. See generally Ad. Code § 3-212.

12. Every lobbyist who expends, incurs, or receives more than $2,000.00 in compensation and expenses for the purposes of lobbying must file a statement(s) of registration with the Lobbying Bureau annually for each of its lobbying clients. The statement of registration requires basic information about the lobbyist, including the names of all employees who engage in lobbying activities, the names, addresses and telephone numbers of the lobbyists’ client(s), and a description of the subject(s) and target(s) of its anticipated lobbying activities. Further, the lobbyist is required to file an amended statement of registration whenever there is a change in the information filed by the lobbyist in the original statement of registration. See Ad. Code §3-213(d)(1).

² The definition does not apply to any determination in an “adjudicatory proceeding.” Ad. Code 3-211(c)(2).

13. The Administrative Code also requires lobbyists to file an amended statement of registration within 48 hours of the making of a campaign contribution by “the unemancipated child of a lobbyist or by the unemancipated child of the spouse or domestic partner of a lobbyist or, if the lobbyist is an organization, by the unemancipated child of any officer or employee of such lobbyist who engages in lobbying activities or who is employed in an organization's division that engages in lobbying activities of the organization or by the unemancipated child of the spouse or domestic partner of any such officer or employee.”³ Ad. Code §3-213(d)(2).

14. Lobbyists who submit a statement of registration must also file periodic reports with the Lobbying Bureau, Ad. Code § 3-216, as well as an annual report. The annual report contains the same financial information that is contained in the periodic reports, but accumulated from the past year. Ad. Code § 3-217(b).

15. Any organization, including any union or neighborhood group or association, that expends more than $2,000.00 annually for the purpose of lobbying must register, and file periodic reports, with the Lobbying Bureau if it conducts its lobbying activities

³ “Unemancipated child” is defined to include “any son, daughter, stepson or stepdaughter who is under age eighteen, unmarried and living in the household of such lobbyist or spouse or domestic partner of such lobbyist or, if such lobbyist is an organization, living in the household of such officer or employee or spouse or domestic partner of such officer or employee”. Ad. Code § 3-213(d)(2). “Campaign contribution” is defined as “(a) any gift, subscription, advance, or deposit of money or any thing of value, made in connection with the nomination for election, or election, of any candidate; (b) any funds received by a political committee from another political committee to the extent such funds do not constitute a transfer; (c) any payment, by any person other than a candidate or a political committee authorized by the candidate, made in connection with the nomination for election, or election, of any candidate, including but not limited to compensation for the personal services of any individual which are rendered in connection with a candidate's election or nomination without charge.” Ad. Code § 3-702(8).

on its own behalf. If the organization's lobbying activities are conducted by a lobbyist retained by the organization who is not an employee of the organization, the organization is not required to file a statement of registration or periodic reports but, instead, must file an annual report with the Lobbying Bureau. Ad. Code § 3-213(a)(1); see also Ad. Code § 3-216(b)(5); Ad. Code § 3-217.

16. The Lobbying Bureau reviews the information it collects to be sure it is complete, accurate, and consistent, and the Administrative Code authorizes the City Clerk to levy fines, among other penalties, for non-compliance. Ad. Code § 3-212; Ad. Code § 223.

D. Lobbying Database

17. The information contained in the statements of registration, periodic reports, and annual reports is kept in eLobbyist, a database developed and maintained by the DOITT. For example, eLobbyist contains the lobbyist's business address and contact information, the principal officer for the lobbyist and/or client, any additional lobbyists on staff, and information about the lobbyist's clients, including the client's business address and phone number. eLobbyist also includes information about the time period that the lobbyist is engaged to perform lobbying activities for the client, the target(s) and subject matter(s) of the lobbying activities, and the compensation paid or owed by the client to the lobbyist by period. The information contained in the reports is stored in eLobbyist and posted on the Internet as soon as practicable. See Ad. Code § 221. The information is accessible to the public and can be searched by lobbyist or by client names at <http://www.nyc.gov/lobbyistsearch/>.

18. Some information in eLobbyist is not made available to the public. Non-public data includes the date a statement of registration is filed, home addresses of registered lobbyists and their clients, e-mail addresses of registered lobbyists and clients, the names of client officers, the names and addresses of spouses or domestic partners of lobbyists, and specific expenses incurred by lobbyists on behalf of their clients.

19. The eLobbyist system was designed to collect information for other city agencies, including the Campaign Finance Board. The Campaign Finance Board evaluates the information that lobbyists file to determine if certain campaign donations are subject to lower contribution limits and are matchable under the Campaign Finance Act. Ad. Code § 3-213(c)(1).

II. Data Concerning Lobbyists

20. Attached herein as Exhibit A is a complete list of all registered lobbyist entities and their clients as of Friday, August 1. This list was compiled by entering eLobbyist and printing screens and reports appropriate to the particular requested information, and manually entering the information into an excel file, which is maintained and regularly updated by the Lobbying Bureau.

21. Included in Exhibit A are a wide range of organizations, both for-profit and non-profit, and the various interests these organizations represent, that have registered and filed reports with the Lobbying Bureau. For example, a wide array of unions that engage in lobbying on their own behalf appear in Exhibit B, including 1199 SEIU United Healthcare Workers East, the Association of Legal Aid Attorneys UAW 2325, Communications Workers of America, AFL-CIO, District Council 37, International Union of Painters and Allied Trades DC 9, Local 32BJ SEIU, and the United Federation of Teachers. Additionally, lobbyists retained by unions are also listed in Exhibit B, including Bolton-St. Johns, Inc. (retained by Local 338 RWDSU), Cozen O'Connor (retained by International Union of Operating Engineers Local 14-14B AFL CIO), Davidoff Malito & Hatcher LLP (retained by Council of School Supervisors and Administrators), Heather Beaudoin (retained by Joint Council 16, IBT), Montalbano Initiatives,

Inc. (retained by Teamsters Local 237), Pitta, Bishop, Del Giorno & Dreier LLP (retained by Uniformed Sanitationmen's Association, Local 831), and Robert A. Ungar Associates, Inc. (retained by Local 246, SEIU).
